RLI TEXAS BUSINESS

SERVICE BOND

The employee was cleaning a doctor's office when he found two envelopes in the receptionist's drawer. Inside the envelopes were $100 and $50 bills. The janitor stole the money. Then he fled to California. Fortunately, his employer was covered by a $5,000 Business Services Bond.

When something's missing, who's the first to get blamed?

As the owner of a cleaning service you've come to expect it. When one of your clients discovers something's missing, the immediate suspects are your employees. Fair or not.

The fact is, cleaning services are highly vulnerable to employee dishonesty losses. Your employees work independently, and they have access to your client's assets, equipment and supplies. Money or property left lying around can be very tempting. Sometimes too tempting.

There's not much you can do about human nature. But you can protect yourself from its consequences. RLI Business Services Bonds help assure that if your employees are caught stealing, it does not become a costly problem for you.

Check into our services today. Because chances are sooner or later you're going to get blamed. Fair or not.
